Student Civic & Voter Empowerment Act (AB 963)

The Student Voter Registration Act of 2003 (Elections Code sections 2145-2148) was implemented to ensure every California Community College (CCC) campus provides students with an opportunity to register to vote.

Students are encouraged to check the Secretary of State's website for voter registration status and to find information for the county where your voter registration is active.

For more information visit the Secretary of State's Students Vote Project
