

California Academic and Research Libraries' (CARL) webinar, "So you're thinking of upgrading your ILS" webinar information, attendance and feedback.

Below is the announcement for the CARL webinar that was sent to various library listservs.

Please excuse any cross posting.

Information for attending the CARL Webinar "So you're thinking of upgrading your ILS".

The free webinars will take place on Wednesday, October 9 from 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Pacific Time and Wednesday, October 16, from 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Pacific Time. Both sessions will be recorded so if you are unable to make either or both, you will be able to watch them at a later date. Information on how to access the archived sessions will be sent out after the webinars have been recorded.

No prior registration is required for the webinar. Information on how to log into the sessions via CCC Confer is listed below. Please note that there are two different codes for dialing in, one code is for October 9th the other code is for October 16th. Please note that the system can only handle 300 telephone lines. If multiple people from your institution are planning on participating, please consider watching and dialing in together if you have a speaker phone. You can also use VOIP; this option does not have a limit on how many people can participate.

Thanks! I watched/listened yesterday and it was very helpful. I also got our committee together earlier this week and we watched/listened to last weeks proprietary vendor webinar.

Thank you, again, for organizing these!

Could you provide the link for the archives. We have some very interested staff.

I found the two panels to be excellent. Very helpful. Thank you so much.
