

2017-2018 FERPA Release Form

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student educational records, both financial and academic. For the student's protection, FERPA generally limits, with certain exceptions such as law enforcement, the release of student information without the student's explicit written consent. In order to release information concerning your financial aid, the student's authorization is required.

The Financial Aid Office will not provide information regarding a student's financial aid application, status of eligibility to any other individual, other than the student, without the student's express written authorization on the 2017-2018 FERPA Release Form. This form must be signed by the student in the presence of a Financial Aid staff member.
