Campus Tour Survey: Transfer Center

Summary of Results March 2007

About 246 students completed the survey on line and 91 completed the paper survey, yielding a sample of 337 students. Forty two percent (42%) expressed to be highly interested and 33% expressed to be somewhat interested in participating in a Northern California university tour. With respect to a tour in central California, the interest was low. 45% indicated not to be interested, 29% to be somewhat interested and only 25% indicated to be highly interested. The written responses regarding which colleges they would be interested and their other concerns are attached.

In conclusion, students would be more likely to participate in a Northern California university tour.
