FA11-102 Student Club Advisor Training & Roundtable Discussion - Dave Belman and Demetria Lawrence	In addition to the knowledge gained in the classroom, student clubs and organizations offer valuable experiences for students to develop their leadership skills. These include the ability to communicate well, to develop, promote, implement, and evaluate ideas and activities, and to initiate desirable change in their communities. Student Club Advisors play a critical role in supporting student engagement in clubs. From helping clubs build budgets for their programs and navigate putting on campus events to advising students on how to successfully lead their peers, Advisors are often the backbone of a successful club. We encourage all club advisors to attend a Club Advisor Training once per year to refresh their knowledge and skills and to be updated on club policies. Participation in this workshop will give student club advisors the opportunity to: - Network with other advisors - Understand specifics of the advisor role - Learn the various policies and procedures related to club events and activities - Discuss strategies and tips for supporting successful student leadership within student clubs	CC2-226	08/09/2011 10:00 AM	08/09/2011 12:00 PM
FA11-103 Brentwood Math Meeting - Jill DeStefano and Matt Stricker	Part time and full time Brentwood Math faculty, math lab tutors, and our lab coordinator will meet to discuss changes in the curriculum, Brentwood Math policies, scheduling, and other department updates. Focus will be on new technologies and specific suggested changes, incorporating those technologies into Math 25 and 30. Dinner will be provided.	BRT15	08/10/2011 06:00 PM	08/10/2011 09:00 PM
FA11-104 Developing Debates for the Classroom - Presented by Kasey Gardner and Dave Zimny	Join Debate Coach Kasey Gardner for a 90-minute workshop on how to develop and implement a debate in your class. Bring a class syllabus and ideas about what you would like to do and work on developing them in a collaborative environment.	CO-101	08/09/2011 01:00 PM	08/09/2011 03:00 PM
FA11-105 Evaluating and Judging Debates - Facilitator: Kasey Gardner	Building on a foundation of knowledge about debate, this session seeks to help you evaluate the strengths and weaknesses in an academic debate. Special consideration will be given to classroom debates and to competitive parliamentary debates. If you are interested in judging for Los Medanos College in intercollegiate competition this would be an excellent orientation. Join us! *you may attend this session and not the earlier debate session	CO-101	08/09/2011 03:00 PM	08/09/2011 04:30 PM
FA11-106 Hints from Classical Music on Good Teaching - Facilitator: Durwynne Hsieh	Music captivates the mind and spirit, communicates powerfully, and leaves the listener with lasting memories "just what many of us strive to do when we teach. In this seminar, we'll discuss some of the ways that classical music accomplishes this, and see what hints it might offer about good teaching. Excerpts from classical masterpieces will illustrate. FLEX AT A GLANCE (as of 8-3-11)

FA11-107 Integrating new technology into biology curriculum, Facilitator: Danielle Liubicich	For the 2011-2012 academic year, we are incorporating new laboratory technology into our Biology majors curriculum. We are adding several laboratory exercises to provide students the opportunity to learn more about these modern approaches used in biological science research and allow them to develop technical skills that that will be helpful in their future studies and careers. This session will provide professional development for faculty teaching courses that may incorporate these new bioscience activities. During the session, faculty will gain firsthand experience working with the techniques and potential ideas for their own lab activities that may be sparked during a brainstorming and feedback session.	SC130	08/09/2011 09:00 AM	08/09/2011 12:00 PM
FA11-108 Implementing Technology Driven, Interdisciplinary Projects for STEM Students at LMC. Facilitated by Ryan Pedersen.	In this session participants will learn about various technology-driven, interdisciplinary projects for STEM students that have been implemented at other colleges and their success. Participants will then brainstorm how projects like these could be used effectively here at Los Medanos to increase STEM student success and collaboration among science, math and engineering faculty.	MA-205	08/09/2011 10:00 AM	08/09/2011 12:00 PM
FA11-109 Orientation to and Improvement of the Labs for the Bio 20 majors. Facilitator: Jancy Rickman	Still being a relatively new manual, the Bio 20 lab manual undergoes yearly revisions. Some labs have been modified and new labs have been added. In order for faculty and staff involved in setting up and teaching these labs, a review and discussion of these changes is necessary to effectively implement the material during the semester.	SCI-130	08/09/2011 12:00 PM	08/09/2011 02:00 PM
FA11-110 CAMP COOR (Course Outline of Record) Facilitator: Janice Townsend	Are you working on updating or COOR or do you have an idea for a new course. FA11-111 Developmental Math Course Content and Course Outline Alignment. Facilitated by Julie Von Bergen, Mara Landers, Jim Cohen, Jeannine Stein	We will provide an overview of which topics to cover in Math 4, 12, 25 and 30. There will be examples of how to supplement the activity packet, which sections of a textbook to teach, and ways to address all Student Learning Outcomes in your class. We will go over mastery quizzes and how to prepare students for mastery. We will be working in breakout groups based on the course you are teaching. Please bring course materials (text, packet), planning materials and calendars.	MA-204	08/09/2011 01:00 PM	08/09/2011 03:00 PM
FA11-112 Transforming EOPS Students. Facilitated by Jeffrey Benford	Through its service contacts, EOPS expects its students to become or improve their ability to self-advocate as agents of an academic community. The EOPS Mid Semester Progress Report (MSPR) process is an opportunity to inculcate the value of academic networking, i.e., adding academic information into the content of existing, student social networks. During this activity, certain questions will be addressed related to the MSPR: Has EOPS clearly communicated its expectations to instructors, and are these expectations fair? Do instructors understand the MSPR procedure and aim? What is the best way or method for communicating expectations to instructors, and clarifying their expectations of EOPS and EOPS students? What obstacles do instructors face with the current model, and what can be done to eliminate these obstacles? This is less about student compliance and more about student transformation.	CC2-214	08/09/2011 04:00 PM	08/09/2011 05:00 PM

FA11-155 Teaching and Learning: SLO Assessment at LMC. Facilitated by Cindy McGrath, Marcy Alancraig (from the BRIC team), Julie Von Bergen, Katalina Wethington, and Mike Grille	In a morning filled with assessment activities, a panel of LMC faculty members will share some of their SLO assessment methods and results, followed by a two-hour presentation from a member of the 2010-11 visiting BRIC Team, Marcy Alancraig of Cabrillo College. Marcy's workshop is entitled "The Wacky World of SLO Assessment: A Toolbox of Techniques" After the presentation we will have an informal assessment discussion and a brief look at Faculty Assessment Survey Results over lunch. Light morning refreshments and lunch will be provided by the TLP, so please sign up online by Sunday, Aug. 7 so we know how much food to order. Other related assessment activities will be offered in the afternoon, including hands-on workshops on CLSO and PSLO assessment. You can use what you learn in the morning session to plan your course and program assessments for the 2011-2012 academic year at the afternoon workshops: FA11-122 (CSLO from 1-4 p.m.) and FA-11-124 (PSLO from 2-4 p.m.). Sign up for these separately online -- you could even start out at the CSLO workshop, finish your course assessment planning early, and then move onto the PSLO workshop if both meet your needs. Please bring your course outlines, syllabi and CSLOs/PSLOs with you to the afternoon sessions. Thanks.
