

LMC Library Guide to Linking to Library Articles and eBooks or Embedding Streaming Videos in your D2L Course Site

Identify LMC Library Electronic Resources that you would like to share with your class.

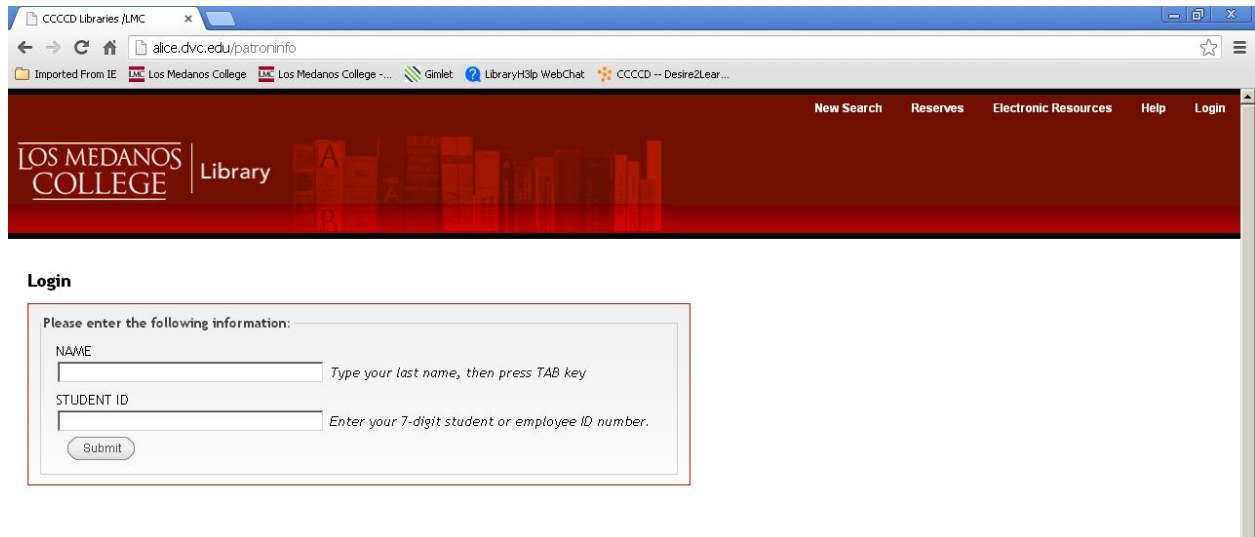

1. Go to the LMC webpage: <http://www.losmedanos.edu/>
2. Click on the Library link in the top banner or start here <http://www.losmedanos.edu/library/>
3. Click on the Electronic Resources link on the left side of the page.

The screenshot shows the LMC Library website interface. A callout box on the left asks "What type of source are you looking for?" and points to the "CHOOSE THE ELECTRONIC RESOURCE TO SEARCH BY:" section. Another callout box on the left asks "List of all resources with a description." and points to the "A-Z Lists" section. A third callout box on the right asks "What's your research about?" and points to the "Subject of Information You Need" section. A fourth callout box at the bottom asks "Search for specific magazine, journal or newspaper holdings by title (ex. Scientific American.)" and points to the "A-Z List of all Journal & Magazine Titles" link.

4. Please contact any of your LMC librarians to get help finding resources to support your class.

Identify the correct link to post in your Desire 2 Learn class site.

In order for the links to work, you will need to use the "persistent link" which includes LMC's proxy information. This allows remote users access to view library resources. Even though they have already logged in to D2L, remote users will be automatically prompted to log in to the library in order to gain access to view the posted material.

Please note this screen is asking for last name and student ID or employee ID number.

(If you do not know your employee ID, look on your paycheck or ask a Library staff person to look it up for you.)

All electronic resources provide persistent links, but they are found in different places based on the vendor.

BOSTON -- Even some of the worst criminals are claimed at their death by someone and given a proper burial. Adam Lanza, who killed 26 people, including 20 children, in the shooting rampage at a school in Newtown, Conn., last year before shooting himself was claimed by his father for a private burial at an undisclosed location. Albert DeSalvo, who was known as the Boston Strangler and linked to numerous murders and rapes in the 1960s, was buried in Peabody, Mass., after being stabbed to death in prison.

Peter A. Stefan, the owner of Graham Putnam & Mahoney Funeral Parlors in Worcester, which is holding the body, endorsed the idea Monday. He had dismissed it earlier, saying there was no guarantee that Russia would accept Mr. Tsarnaev's body.

Mr. Stefan said that he had spoken with Mr. Tsarnaev's mother, Zubeidat Tsarnaeva, by phone on Sunday and that she had said she would like her son's body to return to his home country. "She'd love to have him back there, obviously," Mr. Stefan said. But he said he needed to make sure the Russian authorities would agree to accept the body and inter it.

He said he might seek help from Mr. Kerry in making the burial arrangements with the Russian authorities.

"If we could engineer that, that would be great, but we can't just send the body over like we're dumping it," Mr. Stefan said.

As the stalemate continued, Robel K. Phillipos, who went to school with Dzhokhar Tsarnaev and has been charged with lying to the federal authorities investigating the bombings, was released from federal custody Monday on $100,000 bond. He was placed under house arrest and ordered to wear an electronic bracelet.

And Kenneth Feinberg, who is overseeing the distribution of $28 million that has been donated for bombing victims, said he hoped checks could go out by June 30, though he cautioned that this might be too optimistic.

Films On Demand

The screenshot shows the Films On Demand website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'HOME', 'SUBJECTS', 'SPECIAL COLLECTIONS', 'PLAYLISTS', and 'FAVORITES'. Below this is a search bar and a 'Search' button. The main content area displays the video title 'Margaret Atwood: Once in August' and a video player. A red circle highlights the 'Embed this Video' button in the player's control bar. Below the player, there's a description of the video and its source, 'National Film Board of Canada'.

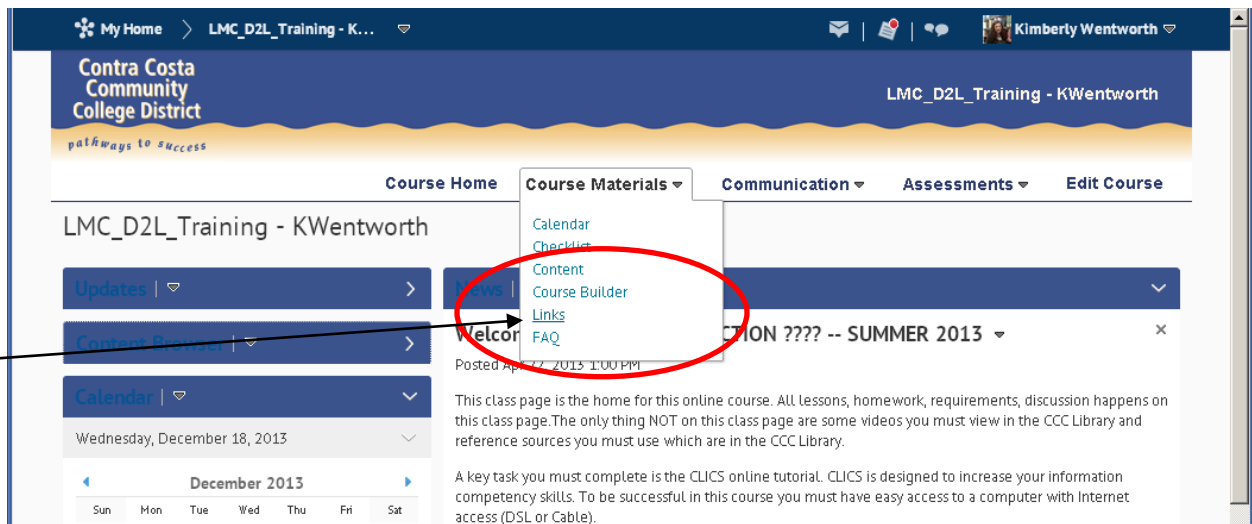

This screenshot shows the same video player as above, but with the 'Embed Code' dialog box open. The dialog box contains two sections: 'Embed Code (Full Title)' and 'Alternate Embed Code (Full Title)'. Arrows point from these sections to callout boxes on the right. The first callout box says 'Copy this code for Blackboard.' and the second says 'Copy this code for Desire2Learn.' The dialog box also includes a close button and a description of the video.
