Public Comment

- African-American cultural discussion on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:00pm in Recital Hall
- Monday, December 5 Academic Scholarship presentation in the LMC Recital Hall
- Wednesday, November 30 Jazz concert in the LMC Recital Hall
- Thursday, December 8 Study Slam in the Academic Core. No further tutoring services after that day, however reading and writing consultations will still be available from 3:00pm-9:00pm. Pizza and other snacks will be served

Club Updates

- Puente has decided not to do anymore fundraising for the remainder of the year. Got together some lunch bags to give out to the homeless in Pittsburg. Passing onto clubs to see if others are interested
- Umoja has completed registration for baskets giveaway. 50 people signed up. Better than turnout last year of about 20 or 25 people
- LMCAS president came in to ask a few questions to the board
- Chair Garcia updated Local Discounts. Every business but one has agreed to do it. Stated that she is content with the direction things are going in
- Debate Society preparing for Steeltown Tournament. Inviting colleges from all over the state and Western region to see what college-level debate is. Great way for students to get contacts with other universities

- Women in STEM thinking of doing an Algebra/Trig bootcamp slam at the Brentwood Campus. No set time yet but thinking of one week before the spring semester. Haven't begun planning how to advertise yet; still in the process of solidifying a date and time

Advisor Report

- Student Life potluck tomorrow, Tuesday November 22 in room L-109 from 5:00pm-8:00pm
- Reminded clubs to empty out their drawers by the end of the semester

New Impact Club

- Instead of Ideal Meal club, Raphael Antunez talked to John and decided it wouldn't be good since there's already a food pantry. Decided to start a feminist club instead
- Passed out clipboard for contact information
- Will make it a regular club with meetings and information centering around dispelling false perceptions of feminism. Contact Raphael Antunez at rantunez1047@gmail.com

Adjournment

- Art Club motions to adjourn meeting at 4:10pm
