CSU East Bay - TAG Program

LMC offers a Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) with CSU East Bay which guarantees entry. Benefits include a waiver of the $55 application fee. The TAG is available to non-impacted majors only. See LMC counselors for details.

To be considered for CSU East Bay TAG, students are required to:

NEW!

- ❖ TAG agreements will only be accepted for Fall Quarter.
- ❖ TAG agreements must be completed and signed by a community college counselor by November 30 of the year prior to intended entry. This means that all Fall 2010 TAGs must be completed by November 30, 2009.
- ❖ TAG students must meet all upper-division transfer admission requirements for the specified term of entry to be admitted to the University. Cal State East Bay requires Fall Quarter transfer applicants to complete all course requirements by the Spring term prior to the Fall Quarter term of entry.

In most circumstances, Cal State East Bay will continue to honor TAG agreements submitted prior to these policy changes. With regard to the newly impacted Business Administration, B.S. program, students who submitted a TAG for Fall 2010 or later with a declared major of Business Administration will still be able to use their TAG for admission to the university as a Pre-Business major. However, the student will additionally need to follow the supplemental application guidelines and requirements to also be admitted to the Business Administration major. Students in this category will be notified accordingly.

1. Have completed 12 transferable units or more
2. Be a California resident
3. Be a first-time undergraduate
4. Have earned a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 by the time of transferring

5. Have at least 60 semester CSU transferable units by the time of transfer
6. Have completed transferable GE courses in Critical Thinking, English Composition, Speech, and Mathematics with a grade of C or better by the time of transfer.
