		working through the process of the Mission, Vision, and Values. Ralston explains that the Governed Community Colleges require the Community Colleges to have a very clear mission statement. So, there is a clear purpose to why a community college exist. Ralston understands that the LMCAS did not support the vision and that is the purpose of her and Juliet joining the meeting today. Due to the Classified Senate, Faculty Senate, and Managers are in support of the Final Draft for the Vision. Joaquin begins to give his feedback that one “and” should be removed to reduce redundancy. Joaquin continues on to say that equitable and diverse do not need to be in the Vision together and one could be chosen instead of both. Diana also agrees with Joaquin’s feedback. Miranda gives her feedback that the Vision was too wordy and was a run on sentence that could make people feel lost when reading it. Ralston begins to give her own feedback to these feedbacks. Ralston first addresses that Diverse and Equitable are two different meanings and could be
