				take one Ethnic Studies class. Increase gen-ed pattern to allow for diverse perspectives. This increases the number of Ge units. They do not want to put more load on students, yet LMC always emphasized diversity and if we do not add diverse perspectives, the other courses would find themselves without sufficient enrollment. This adds 3 more units only for local degrees. Robert, Lyssa Shabusheva, or Adrianna Simone would like to hear back from LMC Associated Students as students to help decide. On this matter. The GEC would also like to have a representative from LMC Associated Students. They meet on Wednesdays from 1-2:30. When asked about when the vote would be, Robert said the Senate would have the final vote on this in March 2025.

6	Officer/Senator Reports and Updates LMCAS (LMC Associated Students) membership will share updates they have and or activities they have participated in since last meeting	A. Gonzalez	1:27-	Armon attended a couple of committees, such as STACK. A student talked about dietary restrictions. Meat is cooked on the same griddle as non-meat. LMCAS could make a letter to the kitchen staff and ask them to do something else.
7	Advisor Report Our advisor will take the time to address the board about anything they wish to share about anything they have going on or any news pertaining to the board.	R. Delgado	1:27-1:35	Robert Delgado wants to highlight the importance of what Bob Moore presented. When it comes to the board for LMCAS, we should be asking questions and considering everyone's situations, whether they are transferring, etc. Think about what implications it has for funding of the college, programming, and the direction the college takes for a long time. Robert and Armon are working on the applications for the trip. On Thursday, from 6:30-8 in the library at room 109, we are hosting Tri-Delta Transit, who are looking for
