				Higher success rates in ENGL-100S because more time for reading comprehension, learning skills and more time for teachers for students to teach. Increased success rates in marginalized groups Registration issues. Students had to register for the 100s as well as the 100. Double canvas shell, back and forth on whether it should be used. Higher success rates with more time, but at the same time there are roadblocks. Hybrid 100E, same as S but without double registration. Across the board, 100s has higher success rates. Targeted outcome, increase Black or African American completion of ENGL 100 by 2025. Why not offer 100s for everyone? If we take away 3-unit class, they may just take it at DVC. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- CCC offers a 4-unit class and not enough students to count have left to take a 3 unit at another college- There aren't enough students leaving LMC to take other classes to count. ENGL 100 instructors just want more money <ul style="list-style-type: none">- 60% of community colleges has 4+ unit ENGL courses.- 82% have co-reqs Working on phasing out the 3-unit ENGL 100
