		10/15/18-10/19/18 created by all community colleges around the state. She found a toolkit on community college district's website that LMC can use to throw events. B. Jafuka Khan: She has started LMC a couple of weeks ago and is running for the school board. Believes adults do not take young people's voices seriously so she wants to be involved with governments. C. Teresea Archaga: Stated that this is her first LMCAS meeting. She is excited to see what LMCAS will accomplish.
4	Officer & Senator Reports	A. Senator Mendez found out that the Brentwood campus has no location for students to heat up their food. Staes it is a big issue since there are people who do not have the money to buy food off campus, they will have to eat cold food. Plans to start a petition for there to be a dedicated spot to heat up food. B. Dale Satre's Grade Appeal Hearing got rescheduled to This Wednesday. C. Sierra Abel: Invited the chairmen from YAF to come to an LMCAS meeting to talk about the 9/11 poster, but they declined. Student Life will be putting on another haunted house and hopes she can count on LMCAS for things like financial support.
5	Advisor Report	I. From Advisor Nguyen: A. Advisor Nguyen encouraged students to decide to be senators, and wants them to encourage their friends to join student government. B. Mustang Vote: All students involved can get t-shirts from Student Life C. Stated that the Blood Drive is on 9/25/18 and participants are notified that their blood is in someone. D. Applications for the Impact conference close on 10/3/18. People get free lunch and a chance to win an amazon kindle. The campus is an annual leadership conference that helps people develop themselves as leaders and learn about skills at LMC.
