| | | A. Went to the Antioch Police Department showing of the documentary of Cyntoia Brown. Was able to speak to them on whether they'd like to come to LMC and talk about awareness regarding sexual abuse. Would also like to invite an instructor but will have to pay a minimum charge. Connected this to how in April, she would like to bring awareness as a focus for the month. Wanted to do this last semester but because she was new, she still had other priorities to focus on and get used to IV. From Vice-President Smith: A. Considered leaving LMCAS because she felt the school was dismissive of female students however, her friends encouraged her to stay and wants to change this B. Reported that there is still a support group for men and women of all ages and orientations for victims of sexual assault. Now open to high school students but mostly made up of women from LMC V. From President McMullen: A. Recapped the retreat between LMCAS and Student Life B. Wanted to pose the question of, "how do people know about student government or programs that will help them transfer?" Would like to develop a packet that would be helpful for incoming students C. Will also be working on finalizing Clubchella plans D. Still working on getting a room for the Muslim community to pray in |
| 5 | Advisor Report | I. From John Nguyen: A. Introduced himself and how he learned public communication skills and used to be a part of student government back when he was a student. "We are about making real and positive changes on campus." Reminded everyone that they will get to voice their concerns to the president of the college and the dean of students B. Announced that Welcome Week will be taking place every day of this week C. Wants to see the board bring more of a presence to the Brentwood campus this semester |
