		<ul style="list-style-type: none">G. Officer Neal further asked what he had done to improve the school communityH. Guest Keating remarked that he is friendly, tries to talk to people, and promote ideas to them. Would like to show new students around so they can get a fresh head startI. Commissioner Villalobos liked how he had a lot of goals. Asked how he intends to show thatJ. Guest Keating said, “no matter what gets you down, you can get yourself through it.” Would like to set up a retreatK. Treasurer Mendez posed the hypothetical scenario of Guest Keating becoming a senator and whether he would treat his former club, the Criminal Justice club, any differently were they to come in for a request due to their negative pastL. Guest Keating replied he would treat them with respect despite the history and treat them like everyone else, remaining objective in the situation
9	Senator Interviews: Mariyah Guinto	<ul style="list-style-type: none">I. From President McMullen:<ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Mentioned the issues that international students at LMC may faceB. Guest Guinto remarked that the school doesn’t prioritize international students compared to US citizens. She cannot work outside campus. Said that as a kinesiology major, she cannot work anywhere else but at a gymC. Said that she understands that this is a government job but it would help to have beneficial relationships with others to aid in obtaining an appropriate jobD. Vice-President Smith wanted to know how she would help local studentsE. Guest Guinto said that in terms of scholarships it is unfortunate that there aren’t any scholarships for international students, but thinks students don’t get involved because of the way students are integrated due to their perceptions of junior college where they think they can just get in and outF. Vice-President said that being abroad taught her that people tend to stick to a small group of people. Said that she had been at university before and wanted to be more proactiveG. Guest Guinto said she would want to network and go around and get to know people and talk

Commissioner Villalobos asked what her strongest skill is K. Guest Guinto replied that networking and socializing would be her best asset
10	Senator Interviews: Priscilla Tatmon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I. From President McMullen: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A. Asked how she would tackle issues regarding teachers B. Guest Tatmon said that she is aware some teachers may not have time and would want to make things like Canvas more available C. Treasurer Mendez asked what issues she has seen arise on the Teaching Learning Committee D. Guest Tatmon said that at the committee, they talk about different strategies they could use to improve teaching methods. Brought up how every teacher should use Canvas in order to reach out to students E. Treasurer Mendez asked what inspired her F. Guest Tatmon said that the key to succeeding in college is having a good teacher-student relationship. As a sports student, likes to get to know her instructors in order to stay informed G. Officer Neal asked how having good relationships could relate to the Zero Textbook Cost grant. “How do you think understanding both sides can lead to a resolution in textbook pricing?” H. Guest Tatmon said if teachers gain a deeper understanding of what their students must go through in order to remain in their classes, it may be beneficial I. Commissioner Villalobos asked whether she sees an underrepresentation of females in the STEM field J. Gust Tatmon commented that in the MESA center, there are “a ton” of male majors. Thinks
