Has gone several things in his life throughout college, and because of his previous personal experience, he desires to help out other students like himself</li><li>- Question from President Cortez: “How would you approach students; what is your strategy or method for LMCAS recruitment?”</li><li>- Answer from Jean Carlos: It’s about making the right decisions and sitting in with people. Mentions how relating to others one-on-one brings a more personal element to the recruiting process.</li></ul> D. Added that in business he has learned how to spend and save money efficiently <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Question from Senator Serva: “How would you describe yourself as a student?”</li><li>- Answer from Jean Carlos: Is very dedicated and has made many improvements academically.</li></ul> II. Question from Vice-President Garcia: “Do you want to start anything new?” <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Answer from Jean Carlos: At the moment he doesn’t think he can take on more responsibilities as he has many things to tend to at the moment, but wants to expand on awareness and possibly start a new club.</li><li>- Question from President Cortez: Within our bylaws, senators must focus on certain things. One of them is diversity and another sustainability which a senator can be appointed to. Would you be interested in any of those?”</li><li>- Answer from Jean Carlos: Possibly.</li><li>- Vice-President Garcia: Part of our role as members of the board is to notify you of Senator positions and concentrations. It’s fine if a prospective senator has no interest in these, but we do wish to present these titles to you. Are you okay with timing? In addition to meetings there is an outside 2 hour requirement.</li><li>- Answer from Jean Carlos: It’s a possibility and depends on how things pan out. Will definitely</li></ul>

9	Committee Appointments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I. Regarding the committees each senator is appointed to; a long discourse took place between senators concerning how to best negotiate each position according to what each person is best suited for. Important points:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. Vice-President Garcia asked if there can be more than one senator appointed to a committee</li> <li>B. Advisor Nguyen responded that he is not completely clear on the protocol at the moment but last time he checked only one student representative could hold the position.</li> <li>C. Senators went back and forth on which position should go to which person, switching places at some points until they came to an agreement</li> </ul> </li> <li>II. Motion: To adopt current list of senators to their designated committees               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. Motioned by: President Cortez</li> <li>B. Advisor Nguyen stressed how the Senate should take hotel stay into account.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- “We may go over budget so it is up to the board to decide to even go this year.” He presented two scenarios:<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. To attend this year but go over budget</li><li>2. The second option is to attend this semester but opt out next semester</li></ol></li></ul></li><li>II. Vice-President Garcia offered to attend as a delegate but not comfortable with doing so since Tabitha is a part of parliament and does not feel that it would be appropriate for her to participate.</li><li>III. Advisor Nguyen brought up that it costs $295 for the registration fee alone</li><li>IV. Senator Velazquez raised the idea of employing flexibility “We can find (financial) cuts in each department (budget).”</li><li>V. Vice President Garcia clarified reallocating expenses for fees</li><li>VI. President Cortez’s main concern: “What is LMCAS getting out of SCCC tangibly? Is it really necessary to attend both?”<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Response from Advisor Nguyen: “Yes that is an option,” referring to Senator Velazquez’s idea.</li></ul></li><li>VII. President Cortez originally put his name down but will opt out if budget does not flexibly allow for it</li><li>VIII. Vice-President Garcia stressed that whoever goes should be delegate, and that a non-delegate would be a “waste of time.”</li><li>IX. Senator Havelhorst asked if it would be cheaper to send one sex to share a room?<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Vice-President Garcia responded that an advisor cannot share room with another student as it would be unprofessional.</li></ul></li><li>X. 11	Debate Society Funding Approval	I. Last meeting Genaro Mauricio, president of Debate Society and Richard Stanfield, treasurer of Debate Society came to the senate in order to appeal for a funding request for Debate Society’s upcoming San Diego tournament <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- From Genaro Mauricio: “In terms of representation, we are a very diverse campus. We were advised to seek help from student government. It seemed like there was a predisposition not to vote for this funding request. We kindly ask not to hold us at fault for the decisions of our previous advisor.”</li> </ul> II. Motion: To set aside $450 for Debate Society A. Motioned by: Vice-President Garcia B. Second: Senator Serva III. Vice-President Garcia commented that the Debate Society represents LMC very well and helps to give the college a name; that they should be rewarded for what their hard work and efforts. Although there are 1,200 other students on campus members of the Debate Society represent the few who are willing to go the “extra mile.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Senator Velazquez inquired about the financial amount. “Why $450?”</li> <li>- Vice-President Garcia responded that $450 will pay for half of the expenses which is “a fair offer.”</li> <li>- President Cortez added that although it is not wise to fund the entire amount, at least helping to pay for half the amount considering LMCAS’s budget constraints seems reasonable.</li> </ul>
