

Professional Development

WHAT WE DO

Professional Development Home

Office of College Advancement

Flex for Faculty and Staff

Professional Development Advisory Task Force (PDAC)

Office of Instruction

Contact Us

The Office of College Advancement Office coordinates professional development activities and assists in the planning, implementation and evaluation of related activities. These include Flex activities, Technology training workshops, conferences, seminars, some grant opportunities and other professional enrichment functions. The office also serves as a link to district level staff development programs. The Professional Development Advisory Task Force (PDAC) welcomes your input and participation.

Professional Development Showcase

The Office of College Advancement also serves as a link to district level staff development programs. The Professional Development Advisory Task Force \(PDAC\) welcomes your input and participation.

Staff and Faculty Only Information: Professional Development Task Force (PDAC): Committees & Boards.

The purpose of LMC's Professional Development is to strengthen and support a dynamic learning environment that promotes and enhances the personal, professional and organizational development for all staff.

Activities and related documents include:

- ▶ Flex activities.
- ▶ Technology training workshops
- ▶ Conference Funding for Faculty and Staff - Procedure, Form, and Review Schedule
- ▶ Request for Leave for Faculty - Updated Dec. 2011
- ▶ Seminars
- ▶ Some grant opportunities and other professional enrichment functions.