

Los Medanos College Student Ambassador Program Information & Application Application Deadline: May 16, 2014

Student Ambassadors

Becoming a Student Ambassador is a great opportunity to serve as a student leader at the college. It is preferred that students interested in becoming Student Ambassadors have been at LMC for more than a semester and have a good understanding of various programs and services available to students. Student Ambassadors will be required to commit to working a year-long schedule including trainings/meetings, regular office hours each week and additional hours for scheduled events/activities.

Qualifications:

- 2.75 LMC Cumulative GPA
- Enrolled in at least 6 units
- Completed a minimum of 6 units as an LMC student

Benefits:

Leadership skill-building; gain experience in problem solving, presentations, and communication; meet new people; attend exciting campus events; develop connections with college administrators, faculty, staff and students. Looks good on transfer applications and resumes!

Financial Incentive:

Student Ambassadors are paid an hourly wage of $8.03/hr for their work including all trainings, office hours, and scheduled activities. Most Student Ambassadors work 5-10 hours per week.

Application Process

Because Student Ambassadors represent the college and require a high level of responsibility, all students interested in being a part of the Student Ambassador Program must submit a full application including:

- ☐ Application Form
- ☐ Typed Responses to Application Questions
- ☐ Resume
- ☐ Unofficial Transcript
- ☐ Time Management Sheet
- ☐ Reference Sheet/Letter

Please note that the summer may involve planning and orientations, so all applicants must be committed to working the entire year including the summer.

After your application has been received, finalist candidates will be called in for interviews and Student Ambassadors will be selected. The number of students hired will depend upon the available funding for the year.
