

FREDERICK DOUGLASS WRITING COMPETITION

In 1857, Frederick Douglass famously began a speech with “If there is no struggle, there is no progress.” These memorable words capture Douglass’ spirit, as he was unafraid to struggle for equality in American Society. In no more than 1,000 words, write a short essay or story that reflects a willingness to struggle in order to improve the lives of others (your submission can be a personal or fictional account).

Prizes

1st Prize: $100
2nd Prize $50

Rules

1. Submissions must be no more than 1000 words.
2. Include your name, email address, and phone number.
3. Submissions must be received by 3:00p.m. Feb. 14 , 2019
4. Winners will be announced Feb. 28, 2019
5. Email entries to: fdcomplmc@gmail.com