Connecting People & Resources Together

LMC is delivering Summer classes & student services remotely. Here you will find information and resources to assist with navigating LMC's online classes and service resources for students, faculty and all employees.

The Pittsburg Campus and Brentwood Center will remain closed to students, the public, and most employees until further notice. All face-to-face classes and services have been suspended to minimize the spread of COVID-19.

Students: Please connect with your instructors via Canvas and check your College email often for updates. For assistance with LMC's online support services, use the Live Chat feature on this website or call (925) 473-7434.
