

2022-2023 FAFSA/CADA Checklist

You will need the following information to fill out a 2022-2023 FAFSA/CADA:

STUDENT AND/OR SPOUSE INFORMATION:

- Student's Social Security Number or Alien Registration number if an eligible noncitizen (only required for FAFSA)
- Student and/or spouse's 2020 Tax Return (if applicable)
- Student and/or spouse's 2020 W2 Form(s) (if applicable)
- Student and/or spouse's 2020 documentation of other untaxed income (such as worker's compensation, disability, etc., if applicable)
- Student's FSA ID and Password (only required for FAFSA)
- Email address that can be easily accessed

IF STUDENT IS DEPENDENT (under age 24, unmarried, does not support any dependents with their own income):

- Parent's Social Security Number(s) (Put all 0's on application if parents do not have a SSN)
- Parent's Date(s) of Birth
- Parent's Date of marriage/separation/divorce/widowhood (if applicable)
- Parent's 2020 Tax Return (if applicable)
- Parent's 2020 W2 Form(s) (if applicable)
- Parent's 2020 documentation of other untaxed income (such as worker's compensation, disability, etc., if applicable)
- Parent's FSA ID and Password (only required for FAFSA, cannot create if parent does not have a SSN)
- Parent Email address that can be easily accessed

Determining your dependency status:

The FAFSA asks a series of questions that determine whether you are a dependent or independent student for purposes of applying for federal student aid. If you are a dependent student, you must report parent information, as well as your own information, on your FAFSA unless you have extenuating circumstances. Please ask a Financial Aid Administrator what would constitute extenuating circumstances.
