A Guided Pathway?

A Guide

Who is a Guide?

What Guides to success?

When does the Guide come alongside?

A Pathway

What is the path?

Where am I on the path?

How does this lead to my goal?

The Pathway

LEARNING OUTCOME PROGRESSION (Course, Program, Institution)

COURSE PROGRESSION (Content – breadth & depth, Academic Skills)

CO-CURRICULAR SUPPORT (Finding Purpose, Experiential, Essential Employment Skills, Life Management Skill)

EQUITY – All paths are designed with an equity lens so that ALL students have an equal chance of success regardless of their situation at the beginning.

Building the Pathway

Faculty Learning Community

- How to select the non-program/department courses to meet requirements?
- Learning Depth and Breadth – Classroom and Beyond
- Contextualized Teaching and Learning

Pathway Planning

STUDENT

- Access to all classes
- Access based on learning support
- Available when life allows
- I see myself learning! I am better/able/different.

COLLEGE

- Align space resources to demand
- Align teaching loads
- Align faculty availability
- Anticipate and eliminate course bottlenecks

Scheduling Considerations

“The Ideal First”

CONTEXT

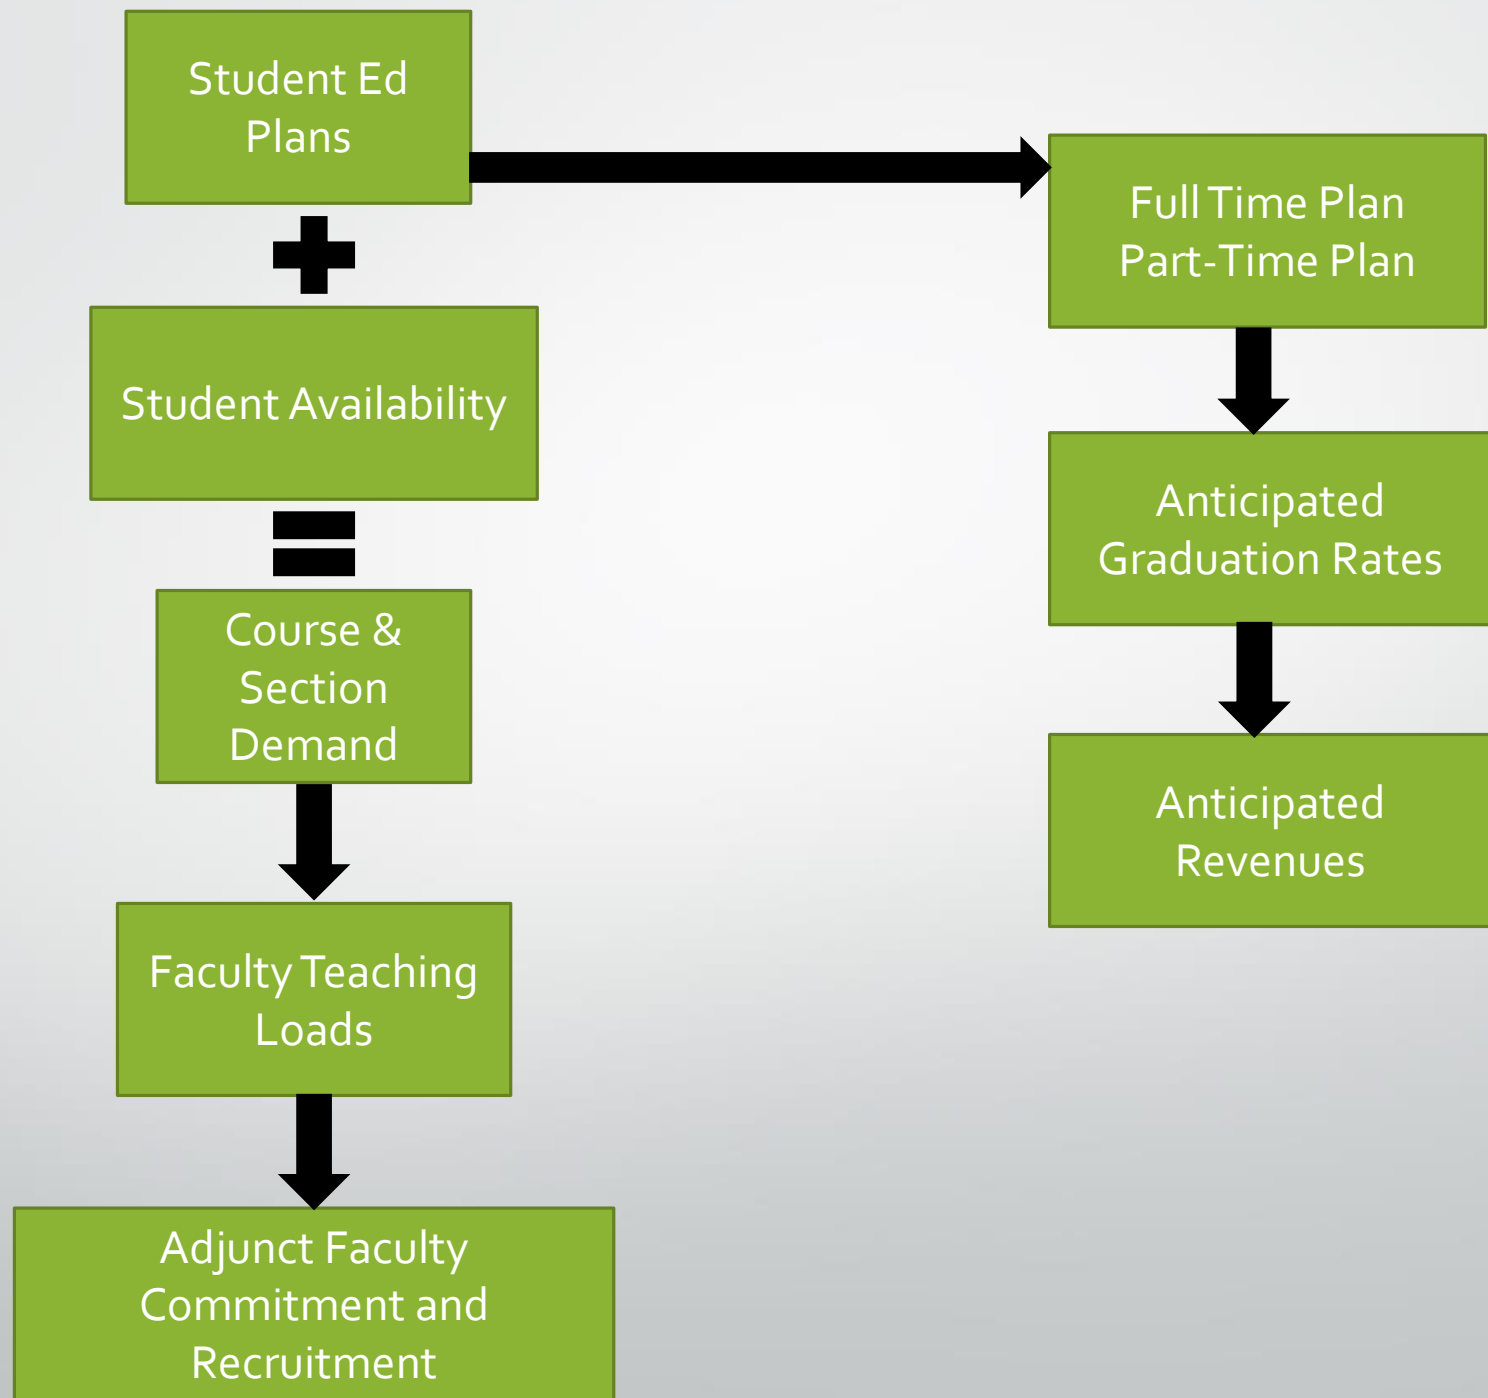

“The Fit”

- Social Interaction Pedagogy
- Career Confirmation v Weeding
- Normalized Resource Use
- Growth Mindset
- Zero Credit SI – Doing College

CONTENT

“The Foundation”

- Writing
- Math
- Communication
- Health
- GE Pivot for Meta

The Guide(s)

Advising

- Scheduling becomes Holistic Advising
- Advising focused on student purpose
- Career Conversations to Develop Commitment
- Exploring Meaning of Course in the Plan
- Developing strategies for additional career learning
- Integrating Experience to Pathway

Braiding In & Out of Class Learning

- Professional Codes of Ethics as Code of Conduct
- Career Clarity in partnership with K-12
- Non-Credit Technical Skill Development and Creative Arts Participation
- Braided Co-Curricular Programs – Application, Leadership, Civic Engagement

Learning is a journey.

The thrill of “Ah Ha!” keeps us seeking to understand and discover more about ourselves AND our world.

Thank you!
