

Call for Candidates- Spring 2020 Election- LMC Academic Senate

Election for Academic Senate Officers – Academic Senate President, At-Large Liberal Arts and Science Part Time, At-Large Student Services Part Time and At-Large Career and Technical Education Part-Time will commence. Voting will commence via paper ballot to all FT professors and email ballot and paper ballot submissions for adjunct professors to your Los Medanos mailbox on February 4th, 2020. Voting will close Tuesday, February 18th, 2020 at 5:00pm. Only votes received prior to the voting deadline will count. The election results will be reported during the Academic Senate meeting on February 24th, 2020.

Terms of Service

All Senate officers are elected to two-year terms. The Senate President may serve at most two consecutive terms. The position of President will have 100% reassigned time. Further description of the election, terms, payment, and duties and responsibilities associated with these positions can be located in the Academic Senate Bylaws. A copy of the Bylaws can be located on the Academic Senate website.

Call for Candidates – Academic Senate President (Term Begins Fall 2020)

Academic Senators of Los Medanos College may put themselves forward for the elected position of Academic Senate President. If you would like to run for this position, please submit a candidate statement via email to MArcidiacono@losmedanos.edu on or before December 13th, 2019. Please state clearly the position in which you are interested. Candidate statements must include the following: your name, the position sought, your current position on the Academic Senate (if seeking the position of President), and your current job title. Candidates will present to Academic Senate on February 3rd, 2020.

Please Note: All potential Academic Senate President candidates are entitled to the following per the Academic Senate Bylaws: “Candidates for either Senate President or Vice-President must be allowed to give a fifteen minute oral presentation to the Senate before the election if they choose, followed by a brief Q&A session. Each candidate may also provide all LMC faculty with an information sheet no more than two pages long, including testimonials.”

If you'd like to include an Information Sheet and/or more detailed Candidacy Statement for the February 3rd meeting it will not be due until January 29th, 2020. December 13th is the deadline for the basic Candidate Statement to include: your name, the position sought, your current position on the Academic Senate (if seeking the position of President), and your current job title.

Call for Candidates At Large Positions (Term Begins Fall 2020)

1.) At-Large Liberal Arts and Science Part Time

Adjunct Faculty members of the Los Medanos College Liberal Arts and Science area may put themselves forward for the elected position of At-Large Liberal Arts and Science Part Time Senator.

2.) At-Large Student Services Part Time

Adjunct Faculty members of the Los Medanos College Student Services area may put themselves forward for the elected position of At-Large Student Services Part Time Senator.

3.) At-Large Career and Technical Education Part-Time

Adjunct Faculty members of the Los Medanos College Career and Technical Education area may put themselves forward for the elected position of At-Large Student Services Part Time Senator.

If you decide you would like to run for one of the At-Large Senator positions, please submit a candidate statement via email to MArcidiacono@losmedanos.edu on or before December 13th, 2019. Please state clearly the position in which you are interested. Candidate statements must include the following: your name, the position sought, your current job title, and your department. A brief candidate statement is recommended.

Should you have questions about the election, call for candidate statements or the voting process please contact Marie Arcidiacono Kaufman, Academic Vice President at MArcidiacono@losmedanos.edu

Note: You must be a full-time faculty member in your department to run for a full-time position and an adjunct e faculty member in your department to run for an adjunct position.