

Integrating GLOBAL ISSUES into Community College Curricula

Saturday, May 14, 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Stanford University History Corner, Building 200, Main Quad, Map

Join us for this full-day symposium about the challenges and opportunities of incorporating global issues into the community college classroom. The day will include presentations from Stanford faculty as well as Bay Area community college professors who have collaborated with Stanford University partners to integrate international topics into their curricula. All community college faculty are welcome.

Presentations will feature adapted lesson plans and course materials as well as strategies for reaching diverse student populations.

Visit EPIC-stanford.stanford.edu for more details.

This collaboration, the Education Partnership to Internationalize Curriculum (EPIC), provides professional development opportunities for K-14 teachers and is partially funded by the U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant. Collaborators include Stanford Global Studies Division \(SGS\), The Stanford Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education \(SPICE\), and Lacuna Stories.
