ISSUE #5

FEBRUARY 2025

Happy 2025,

As we step into the spring semester, I want to take a moment to recognize your unwavering commitment to our students and our mission at Los Medanos College. In the midst of a dynamic and ever-evolving political landscape, your dedication to fostering inclusive, supportive, and empowering learning environments remains more critical than ever.

Our students look to us not only for knowledge but for stability, encouragement, and hope. Your presence, your passion, and your perseverance make a difference in their lives every single day. Let's continue showing up, lifting each other up, and doing the transformative work that defines our LMC community.

Thank you for all that you do—your efforts matter, and your impact is immeasurable. Here's to a strong and inspiring spring semester!
