Below is the table given to me, Paula Gunder, as ESL Department Chair regarding the updating status of the ESL Course Outlines of Record. I asked this question on the draft of this report given to my dean on the deadline date this section of the PR was to have been submitted, but my question went unanswered. Thus, I will ask again, how is it that a COOR is scheduled to be updated, as shown below, when the course itself was not scheduled and taught and could not have undergone an assessment of its CSLOs until SP19 or SP20? All of the ESL COORs are up-to-date as far as I am aware and based on when we were able to schedule them, teach them, assess the CSLOs, and submit updates. If this is not the case, and I am in error, I am happy to do all of the updating needed to ensure that ESL is in compliance.

The Library does not currently offer courses, however we are exploring CDCP noncredit as an option to replace a traditional information literacy course. Preliminary discussions with the ESL department include a noncredit course contextualized for the information and research needs of English language learners. Additional areas of media literacy and digital literacy are being explored.
