1. Welcome and Introductions

- Members present: Jarrod Holcombe, Zine Sandy, Elizabeth Esparza, Sheri Woltz, Jenica Perez
- Guests:, Tracy Marcial, Katherine Chen, Jennifer Garcia
- Absent: Yollotl Lopez

2. Reports

- The Sustainability Committee met on Wednesday the 15th at 3:30 p.m., beginning with brief updates during which Maintenance reported they will be purchasing 3 electric vehicles, 2 for Grounds and 1 for Maintenance.
- Custodial did not have any new information to report.
- The District provided a transportation survey and requested departments make one more push for participation in sharing with both the LMC and Brentwood Center communities. Sheri to forward the survey to the committee and the campuses, and Liz committed to posting it for the Brentwood Center.
- Jenica requested the possibility of using mulch generated by tree-cutting again to prepare for the Earth Day Event in the Nature Preserve.

3. Old Business

- The committee revisited Old Business related to Earth Day. The Hyphae Club is planning an event in the Nature Preserve on April 29th from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sheri shared the information on outside organizations invited to table at a resource fair in the quad from 11am to 1pm on April 29th with the idea of pointing visitors to the Nature Preserve for Hyphae Club event.
- We tabled the Clothing Swap until a later date.

4. New Business

No Meeting in May due to Graduation week. No meetings over the summer. Liz suggested rallying more involvement with Sustainability over the summer. Next meeting will be September 16, 2026 from 3:30pm to 4:30pm. Reminder will be sent out the week before.
