

Nursing Application Tracking Chart

School Name	School Application Deadline	Nursing Supplemental Application Deadline	TEAS Score Deadline	Official Transcripts Deadline	Classes Remaining	Any Additional Application Notes or Requirements, Opportunities for "Bonus Points", Notes about Point System

Additional Notes about the Nursing Application process:

- Review Each School's "Points Chart/System" & Application Review Process...
 - Does the school offer "Bonus Points" for other areas, such as healthcare experience, certifications/licenses, second language proficiency, etc.?
 - Does the school require a Personal Statement/Essay?
 - Is there a "Repeat Policy/Penalty" for repeating Nursing prerequisites?
 - Is there a "Recency" requirement for Nursing prerequisites (example - must have been completed within the past 5 years)?
 - Is there a maximum number of attempts for the TEAS Exam? What is the minimum/average TEAS Score for admitted students?
 - When do all Nursing prerequisites need to be completed by? What is the minimum/average GPA for admitted students?
- TEAS Exam can be scheduled online at – www.atitesting.com (study guides/practice tests available on website too)
- Some schools use the NursingCAS website (www.nursingcas.org) for students to submit their Nursing Supplemental Application, and some schools may use their own school-specific website for their Nursing Application. Please check each school's website to determine the exact process on how to submit your Nursing Supplemental Application, as well as how/where to submit your Official Transcripts and TEAS Scores.